BEARCAT BANTER
A playoff Round between the Truro Bearcats and Pictou County Crushers is always welcomed.

It gets underway Friday at the RECC.

Over the course of this season the Bearcats defeated the Crushers five of the eight outings. All the games have been competitive, suggesting a lengthy Round may be in store.

A Bearcat strength since returning to the Junior ranks in 1997 has been goaltending. This year, for the eleventh season the Bearcats were the recipients of the Young-Knickle Goaltending Award, for allowing the fewest goals against (145) over the 52-game schedule.

The Bearcats enter the playoffs with two young goalies up to the challenge. Louca Connolly's 2.69 GAA leads the MHL. He put together an impressive 19-5-2-1 record in 28 appearances.

Sam Berthiaume joined the club in November compiling a 12-4 record in 16 starts, and a solid 2.29 GAA. He's just minutes short of qualifying for league awards.

The Crushers respond with returnee Yianni Karkoulas. He suited up for 36 games, posting a 22-9-4 record and 3.08 GAA.

George Gallant was acquired from the Summerside Capitals at the Trade Deadline. He finished the season with an 11-6-2-2 record and 3.03 GAA. He played five of those games as a Crusher.

The Pictou County team allowed 167 goals against.
