BEARCAT BANTER

The Truro Bearcats won the opening two games against the Pictou County Crushers. Friday, in Truro, the Bearcats scored two goals in each period with no Crusher response to pick up the 6-0 win. Overall, the shot count was close the difference was in finish and goaltending. Sam Berthiaume, the MHL's Rookie-of-the-Month for February was at the top of his game turning aside the 34 shots directed his way. Yianni Karkoulas faced 35 Bearcat shots. Callum Aucoin led the Bearcats offensively with his hattrick. Over the course of the season, he scored 27 while assisting on 19 others. He was playoff ready. Antoine Fontaine added a pair. Logan Quinn opened the scoring and was credited with the GWG.

Game Stars: Aucoin, Berthiaume, Fontaine.

Sunday, at the Wellness Centre in Pictou County, it was the Crushers who got on the board first on Kaden Smith's goal. Truro got that one back, then went on to score four unanswered in the second to account for the remainder of the game's scoring. Samuel Vachon scored two, with single goals coming from Jayden Connors (GWG), Callum Aucoin and Antoine Fontaine. Sam Berthiaume picked up the win stopping 27 of 28 while Karkoulas dealt with 30 Bearcat shots, many from the oddman rush. Game Stars: Vachon, Connors, Eric Halliday.

CRUSHERS
PICTOU COUNTY WEEKS

The Bearcats finished the Regular season with the second best powerplay percentage (26.9). In the first two games, the Bearcats scored three power play goals in their nine opportunities. The Penalty Kill was a solid zero for six. For sure, both the Bearcats and Crushers have no shortage of energy. Both clubs are operating with deep forechecks and physicality, with no checks unfinished. Game Three, in any sport, is a big game. Both clubs know what needs to be done, making Tuesday's game pivotal. Game Four is scheduled for Thursday in Pictou County. Game Five, if necessary, will be back in Truro Saturday – All games have 7:00 pm start times.
