BEARCAT BANTER

Game 5 goes Monday at the RECC. The Bearcats can close out the series with a win while the Blizzard can stave off elimination and force the series back to Edmundston on Wednesday.

Despite outshooting the Blizzard in Game One, it was Edmundston who got rewarded with three second period goals enroute to a 4-0 win. Olivier St.-Onge got the win while Louca Connolly took the loss. The Game Stars were St.-Onge, Noah Larochelle and Alex Thibault.

Last Tuesday, the Bearcats pushed back for a 4-3 win to even the series. The Blizzard took a one goal lead into the second period before the Bearcats exploded for four goals with just two replies.

Goals came from Eli Baillargeon, Ben Lindsay, Antoine Fontaine and Drew Keiver. Olivier St.-Onge took the loss and Louca Connolly picked up his first playoff win. The Game Stars were Keiver, Fontaine and Thibault. Game Three in Edmundston was another close one until it wasn't. For the third consecutive game the Blizzard opened the scoring, but Nathan Curson scored his first two playoff goals to put the Bearcats in front going into the second period.

Callum Aucoin scored a pair in the third along with Jake Todd's empty-netter to give the Bearcats a 5-2 win and the series lead. Connolly picked up the win while Cedric Masse took the loss. The Game Stars were Aucoin, Curson and Noah Larochelle.

The Bearcats led Game four from the get-go. Curson and Matthew Bolduc enabled Truro to exit the first period with the lead, then two quick ones from Samuel Vachon and Liam Welsh proved enough to give the Bearcats the 4-3 win and 3-1 series lead coming home. Connolly took the win and Masse the loss. The Game Stars were Bolduc, Charles-Eric Tremblay, Vachon. Play in all four games has been close and no lead seemed safe. Both teams have been required to hang on by times and both called upon for heavy pushback. Game Five should be no different.

The Blizzard are defending champions and are not planning to see their season end. The Bearcats are aware of this, and have the opportunity to do something the current franchise has not done - win the MHL Championship on home ice.
