BEARCAT BANTER

The Summerside Capitals got back into the series with their home ice win on Monday. All three games were close and, in most cases, could have gone either way. Those expecting a long series may very well get their wish.

Game One: The Bearcats drew first blood in this series with a 2-1 OT win in Summerside:

Callum Aucoin opened the scoring early in the first period and Elliott Robert's powerplay goal with thirty seconds remaining in the game sent it into OT. Aucoin scored the winner at the 9:11 mark of the extra session. Game Stars: Aucoin, Kolton Bourret, Sam Berthiaume.

Game Two: The Bearcats went up two with the 3-1 win in Truro last Saturday. Obviously, there is no such thing as a bad shot on net. Summerside opened the scoring before the two-minute mark of the game. The Bearcats took the lead with second period goals from Liam Welsh and Matthew Bolduc. Bolduc's empty-netter in the game's closing seconds salted the win. Once again, goaltenders Bourret and Berthiaume waged an impressive goaltending battle. Game Stars: Bolduc, Berthiaume, Jayden Connors.

Game Three: Summerside needed a pushback game and got it, picking up a home ice shutout. After a scoreless first period, the Capitals got goals from Elliott Mullen and Justin Ouellette in the second before Jordan Shaw sewed things up in the third. Kolton Bourret picked up the win while Sam Berthiaume faced 43 shots to take the loss. Game Stars: Bourret, Ouelette, Elliott Robert.

The Bearcats come into Wednesday's game at the RECC with a 2-1 edge. Fans should expect to see the best that each team has to offer. It should be a dandy.

At the end of regular season play, the Capitals and Bearcats sat one-two in the Standings and one-two on powerplay percentage. They stood at 30.7% and 26.9% respectively.

The powerplay has been quiet in this series. The Capitals picked up one, in seven opportunities while Truro was unsuccessful in its eleven chances. The PK on both sides has been solid.

Game Five in the series is slated for Friday, April 10. Game Six if necessary is scheduled for Sunday, April 12 at the RECC, 7:00 P.M.
